WHAT'S IN A NAME?

We decided on the name The Pig and Porter after reflecting on who we are and who we want to be. We picked Pig because it reflects our Iowa roots, Iowa being the largest pork producer in the world. Though that does not mean that everything on our menu will be smothered in bacon or contain pork. It does mean that we will focus heavily on sourcing local Iowa ingredients in our food and drinks.

We chose the word Porter for our name not for the beer, but for our culture as a restaurant. The word porter—outside of the beer style—means the person that carries heavy loads. In a kitchen, that person is often the dishwasher or busser. We have the word in our name to serve as a constant reminder that everyone who works with us is considered a “Porter.” The dishwasher is not more important than the chef. The server is not more important than the busser. We are all porters!

THANK THE COOKS

Enjoy your meal? Feel free to tell the kitchen “thanks” with a round of beers.
